OLDRATI GROUP

The Oldrati Group has been an industrial excellence for over 60 years in the design and production of technical rubber, plastic, and silicone components, standing out for its vision, approach, and performance.

With 1,400 employees and an aggregate turnover of over 180 million euros, the Group serves various industrial sectors, including Automotive, Oil & Gas, and Heating, as well as consumer sectors such as Sports, Healthcare, and Household.

The Group integrates all production phases in-house, from design and compounding to the final product, distinguishing itself with a unique manufacturing model.

From product co-design to multi-component assembly, Oldrati brings the guiding principle All in One to life, ensuring reliability and quality in every process and production phase.

With production sites in Turkey and Slovakia, in addition to Italy—where its Headquarters are also located—Oldrati strategically addresses an international market composed of major global industry players.

Technological innovation and sustainability drive the Group's continuous development, reflected in projects focused on digitalization, automation, material regeneration (Ogreen), and energy efficiency, along with concrete actions to reduce emissions.

Market focus, material research, and product development are the keys to the future, enabling Oldrati to anticipate market trends with innovative materials and solutions tailored to customer needs.
